Ninth Edition – December

CELEBRATING UNIQUENESS

Capturing Emotions

HAPPY MIND. HAPPY FACE

Mental Health Day was celebrated on October 10th to lay emphasis on the importance of mental well-being. The theme for the day was, 'Live, Love, Laugh' and the aim was to celebrate togetherness through various activities.

Vibrant Hues, Joyful Spirits, Unveiling the Colours of Festivals!

Durga Puja was celebrated with great fervour and enthusiasm. The performances were a tribute to our cultural ethos, fostering a sense of unity and deep-rooted traditional values.

Spreading the Joy of Giving

'Let Our Dreams Rise, Not the Smoke, Say No to Crackers, Yes to Clean Air!'

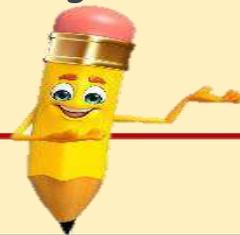

In a world where the echoes of celebration often mingle with the smoke of fireworks, our young champions stepped up to illuminate change. 'Let's celebrate without compromising the air we breathe - because our dreams should rise, not the smoke!'

Children's Day unfolded as a magical day of joy, laughter, and boundless enthusiasm. The campus resonated with the cheerful chatter of students as they enjoyed a day filled with special activities, games, and surprises. From vibrant performances to delightful treats, the day radiated warmth and happiness, making it a cherished chapter in the book of childhood memories for our students.

"Empowering Futures, One Coin at a Time, Building Financial Literacy in Young Minds."

Fin Lit Project aided students in understanding the practical application of profit and loss through the proceeds of their sale. Such an endeavour was undertaken through the sale of lemonade in campus by the students of Class V and a plate of lip-smacking bhel in the midst of regular classes by the students of Class IV. The 'Bhel Sale' was indeed a treat to savour.

On the 19th of December the students hosted Cyber Safety Awareness programme through a volley of activities like watching a video on cyber security followed by a pledge, tying cyber safety bands on each other's wrist, interactive session on cybercrime and how to curtail it. A Cyber Awareness workshop was conducted by Mr. Jawed Akhter Khan, the Resource Person along with his team from EDCI.
